What Happens on the Final Day of the SSB Interview

Conference Round

The highlight of the final day is the conference, where all the board members, including assessors from the GTO, Psychology, and Interview panels, come together to take a collective decision on each candidate.

Key aspects of the conference include:

- Duration: One to five minutes per candidate
- Questions are usually simple and designed to observe your final impression
- Common questions include:
    - How was your stay
    - Which task did you enjoy the most
    - Any suggestions for improvement

Candidates in the borderline category may be asked more detailed or clarifying questions.

Tip from Victor Growth: Maintain confidence, clarity, and composure. This is your moment to leave a strong and lasting impression.

Result Announcement

Shortly after the conference, the results are announced. Selected candidates are referred to as recommended candidates.

After Selection:

- Recommended candidates undergo a medical examination
- Instructions for documentation and further steps are provided

Note: Even if you are not recommended, do not lose heart. At Victor Growth, we believe in building resilient, growth-oriented individuals who can succeed in future attempts.

What to Wear on the Final Day

Dress smartly in formal or semi-formal attire. A clean and polished appearance reflects seriousness and discipline.
