

HOW TO START PREPARING FOR CLAT FROM CLASS 11 OR CLASS 12

INTRODUCTION

If you're in Class 11 or Class 12 and aspiring to become a lawyer, starting your CLAT preparation early can be a game-changer. The Common Law Admission Test (CLAT) is the gateway to India's premier National Law Universities (NLUs), and beginning your journey in school gives you a significant edge over last-minute competitors.

This guide offers a detailed roadmap on how to start preparing for CLAT from Class 11 or 12, balancing school and entrance preparation, and building the right habits for long-term success.

WHY START EARLY FOR CLAT?

1. Time Advantage

You get 2 full years (if you start in Class 11) or at least a year (if in Class 12) to build concepts, revise, and take mocks—reducing exam pressure.

2. Strong Foundation

Starting early allows you to build a strong foundation in English, logical reasoning, current affairs, and legal aptitude—core sections of CLAT.

3. Balanced Preparation

You can comfortably manage both board exams and CLAT preparation without burning out.

CLAT 2025/2026 EXAM STRUCTURE (FOR SCHOOL STUDENTS)

Section	Number of Questions	Weightage
English Language	22-26	~20%
Current Affairs & GK	28-32	~25%
Legal Reasoning	28-32	~25%
Logical Reasoning	22-26	~20%
Quantitative Techniques	10-14	~10%
Total	120	100%

- Type: Comprehension-based MCQs

- Marking Scheme: +1 for correct, -0.25 for wrong answers
- Duration: 2 hours

STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE TO START CLAT PREPARATION FROM CLASS 11 OR 12

1. Understand the Exam Pattern and Syllabus

Begin by familiarizing yourself with the CLAT exam pattern, question types, and sections. Visit the official CLAT Consortium website regularly for updates and sample papers.

2. Create a Realistic Study Schedule

Make a plan that includes both school subjects and CLAT topics:

- Weekdays: 1–2 hours for CLAT (focus on English, GK, or reasoning)
- Weekends: 3–4 hours for practice and mock tests

3. Start Reading Newspapers Daily

Develop a habit of reading 'The Hindu' or 'The Indian Express'. Focus on:

- Legal news
 - Editorials
 - National & International events
- Make notes and revise current affairs weekly.

4. Build Vocabulary and Grammar

Use resources like:

- Word Power Made Easy by Norman Lewis
- A personal vocabulary notebook
- Online quizzes to reinforce grammar

5. Practice Legal Reasoning Basics

Though no prior legal knowledge is needed, learn:

- Basic legal terms
- Constitution fundamentals
- Legal principles and their applications

6. Master Logical and Analytical Reasoning

Topics to focus on:

- Critical reasoning
- Puzzles and syllogisms
- Statement-conclusion and assumptions
- Practice with MK Pandey or RS Aggarwal

7. Strengthen Basic Mathematics

CLAT asks 10–14 questions from Class 10-level math. Cover:

- Percentages, Ratios, Averages
 - Graph and data interpretation
 - Profit & loss, time & work
- Use NCERT books and RS Aggarwal Quantitative Aptitude

8. Join a Foundation Course or Online Class (Optional)

If possible, join a CLAT foundation batch for Class 11–12 students. Choose a reputed institute that focuses on:

- Concept-building
- Doubt-clearing sessions
- Mock test series

9. Take Weekly Mock Tests and Sectional Quizzes

Start slow with sectional tests. As you progress, attempt monthly mock tests and analyze:

- Accuracy
- Time taken
- Strong and weak areas

10. Stay Consistent and Revise Regularly

Revise weekly:

- Vocabulary words
- Current affairs
- Legal principles
- Short notes and formula sheets

BEST BOOKS FOR CLAT PREPARATION FROM CLASS 11 OR 12

English Language

- Word Power Made Easy – Norman Lewis
- English is Easy – BSC Publishing
- CLAT past year papers

General Knowledge and Current Affairs

- Lucent's GK
- Manorama Yearbook
- Daily newspapers and monthly compilations from coaching portals

Legal Reasoning

- Legal Aptitude – AP Bhardwaj
- Universal's Guide to CLAT

Logical Reasoning

- Analytical Reasoning – MK Pandey
- Verbal and Non-Verbal Reasoning – RS Aggarwal

Quantitative Techniques

- Class 9 and 10 NCERT Math Books
- Quantitative Aptitude – RS Aggarwal

TIPS TO BALANCE CLAT PREP WITH SCHOOL STUDIES

- Use school holidays for intensive revision and mocks
- Don't ignore board exam subjects
- Dedicate a fixed time daily to CLAT without skipping
- Don't panic—CLAT rewards smart, not just hard work

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQS)

Q1. Is Class 11 too early to start CLAT preparation?

A: No. In fact, starting in Class 11 is ideal. You get time to build concepts gradually and improve through practice without pressure.

Q2. Can I prepare for CLAT along with Class 12 board exams?

A: Yes. You'll need a smart study plan, but many students crack CLAT while preparing for their boards.

Q3. Is coaching necessary from Class 11?

A: Not mandatory. Many students succeed with self-study. However, coaching can provide structure, guidance, and regular testing.

Q4. What should I focus on the most in the beginning?

A: Focus on English, reading habits, and current affairs. These areas take time to improve and are essential across all sections.

Q5. How many hours should I study for CLAT in Class 11 or 12?

A: Around 1-2 hours daily in Class 11 and 2-3 hours daily in Class 12, increasing intensity closer to the exam.

CONCLUSION

Starting CLAT preparation from Class 11 or 12 gives you the early advantage most aspirants miss. With the right planning, consistent efforts, and smart resources, you can crack CLAT in your first attempt and secure a seat in top NLUs.

Facebook

Instagram

Youtube