Understanding the SSB Interview Process

We provide in-depth orientation on the structure of the SSB, the role of Officer Like Qualities (OLQs), and what the assessors expect across each stage of the process.

Day 1: Screening and Intelligence Tests

Officer Intelligence Rating (OIR) Test

Practice verbal and non-verbal reasoning questions under time constraints to improve your aptitude and reaction speed.

Picture Perception and Description Test (PPDT)

Training includes writing meaningful stories using our unique story-writing framework and performing well in group discussions.

Day 2: Psychological Testing

Thematic Apperception Test (TAT)

Develop effective stories reflecting leadership, initiative, and emotional maturity.

Word Association Test (WAT)

Build the ability to form crisp, clear, and positive thoughts quickly.

Situation Reaction Test (SRT)

Learn to approach real-life situations with logic, responsibility, and confidence.

Self Description Test (SDT)

Receive expert guidance on writing authentic, well-structured descriptions reflecting self-awareness and clarity.

Day 3: Group Testing - Phase I

Group Discussion (GD)

Daily group discussions improve articulation, teamwork, clarity of thought, and confidence.

Group Planning Exercise (GPE)

Practice solving map-based scenarios with strategic planning and team-based solutions.

Day 4: Group Testing - Phase II

Progressive Group Tasks (PGT)

Outdoor tasks designed to evaluate your problem-solving ability, group dynamics, and initiative.

Command Task

Simulated exercises that help you lead, instruct, and execute group tasks under observation.

Individual Obstacles

Training focuses on physical strength, stamina, and coordination to complete the obstacle course confidently.

Final Group Task (FGT)

Conclude the group testing with a task that showcases all your learned skills in teamwork and leadership.

Personal Interview Training

Our one-on-one interview sessions are tailored to reflect actual SSB interviews. We cover:

• Academic, personal, and current affairs questions

- · Confidence building and body language
- Individual strength and weakness analysis
- Feedback sessions with video reviews

Day 5: Conference Preparation

Preparation for the final board interaction focuses on composure, summary of performance, and presenting your personality effectively.

Additional Modules

Communication Skills Training

Daily practice in spoken English, public speaking, and interview communication techniques.

Physical Fitness Sessions

Our fitness module includes daily routines, obstacle practice, and expert tips to enhance agility and endurance.

Mock SSB Rounds

We conduct full mock SSB rounds including all major activities to boost familiarity, confidence, and performance.
